Name of body
Country

- 1) Do you agree, that following The Lisbon Treaty ratification and its entering in force (i.e. the abolishment of the principle of rotating national presidencies of the Council of EU) the tradition of joint meetings by representations of budgetary and financial bodies of national parliaments together with COBU should be preserved?

yes
no

- 2) If yes, should the half-yearly interval be maintained?

yes
no

- 3) If yes, should the established order of procession (based on EU Council Decision no. 2007/5/EC, Euratom as late as year 2020) be preserved or should other mechanisms be put in place?

Established principle
new principle

- 4) In your opinion would our meetings be more effective if a conclusion were produced for example in the form of a memorandum relating to current political and economical issues? (This procedure already occurs at the COSAG meetings.)

yes
no
other opinion

5) If yes, what is your recommendation how the conclusions of these meetings should be processed (for example to submit to the appropriate bodies such as committees of EP, ECOFIN, European Commission, other respective bodies)?

Committees of EP
ECOFIN
Commission
Others

6) Do you think that topics for discussion at the joint meetings of chairpersons of budgetary and financial committees of national parliaments should fall into the exclusive competence of the national committee which is presiding over the meeting or should it at least be partly coordinated with the priorities of EU?

yes
no
other opinion

7) If you agree with partial coordination with EU priorities briefly outline the means by which to achieve this.
